

YWCA CROWDED CLOSET CONSIGNMENT GUIDELINES

YWCA Crowded Closet will examine the merchandise with Consignor present.

YWCA Crowded Closet will make all merchandise pricing decisions and reserves the right to promote and offer markdowns at their discretion.

All merchandise is accepted for a consignment period of 90 days. The Consignor will receive 30% of the selling price on their merchandise sold within 90 days. After 90 days the consignment relationship is terminated.

Checks will be mailed quarterly. Please note: We will not issue checks for under $20 quarterly. The funds will remain in your account until it exceeds $20, at which point a check will be issued the subsequent quarter.

From the date items are consigned, they remain at the shop until they are sold or donated. Crowded Closet does not allow consignors to pick up merchandise.

Crowded Closet reserves the right to be selective when accepting merchandise. If Crowded Closet does not accept any or all of the merchandise, consignor can choose to take their merchandise back or donate it to Crowded Closet. If donated, consignor may request a donation letter for tax purposes.

All merchandise must be in excellent, saleable condition:

- All clothing and fashion must be within 2-3 years in fashion and for the upcoming season.
- All clothing must be moderate to high end designer brands
- Items should be on hangers, clean, no stains, missing buttons or ties, broken zippers, pilling, holes, odors, rips or discoloration.

Crowded Closet does not accept men's or children's clothing, household items, bathing suits, undergarments, or sleepwear.

YWCA Crowded Closet assumes no responsibility for the loss of, damage of, retail theft or destruction of any article left on consignment. Consignor accepts all such conditions as they may from time to time exist as part of the consigned goods and releases YWCA Crowded Closet from any claim for loss thereof.
